

Community Educational Forum: Food Allergies

Understanding the world of food allergies. It affects us all!

FACT (Food Allergy Children's Team) and AAPS present a forum for the Ann Arbor community to discuss and learn about food allergies.

May 8, 2008

7-8:30pm

Forsythe Middle School Media Center
1655 Newport Road
Ann Arbor, MI 48103
(734)994-1985

6:30-7:00p Enjoy refreshments, educational displays and on-the-spot training on how to use an EpiPen or Twinject.

7:00-8:30p Dr. Marc McMorris Scientific causes, and increase in prevalence
Dr. Harvey Leo Allergists and parents working with schools to develop safer environments and social independence for students
Parents Explore a day in the life of a family coping with food allergies
School nurses Adapting to the changing workplace and learning place, developing safer environments
Panel for Q&A Parents, doctors and nurses answer your questions

8:30-8:45p Stay for conversation, questions, displays and EpiPen training!

Contact for questions:

Regan Dahle, Coordinator of FACT (Food Allergy Children's Team), 313-570-6204
Marcia White, School Nurse, AAPS, pager: 817-3691